

Baby Shower Game: Right left

Gather guests in a circle. Pass a small gift around the circle while reading the story aloud. Each time the word "left" or "right" is mentioned, the gift should be passed accordingly.

Once upon a time, there was a joyful mom-to-be named _____. She was eagerly awaiting the arrival of her little one.

Right before her baby shower, she received a mysterious letter right from a stork, inviting her on a special adventure to find the perfect gift for her baby.

At the cottage, she found a treasure chest hidden beneath a pile of leaves. With trembling hands, Emily opened the chest and discovered a soft blanket left inside, perfect for her baby.

Filled with joy, Emily returned home with her precious gift, grateful for the adventure and the love of her friends and family.
